INTRODUCTION

WELCOME TO NORMANDY PARISH COUNCIL

Your relationship with the council is governed by the policies and procedures in this handbook and by the terms and conditions in your contract of employment. Please take time to read both documents carefully. If there is a conflict between the two, your contract of employment prevails.

This employee handbook is divided into two parts:

SECTION 1 – POLICIES

Section 1 sets out the council rules, policies, procedures and general information. It is important that you obey the rules and always follow the set policies and procedures. These are in place to provide a safe, efficient and effective working environment, and to help and protect employees.

The council's policies do not directly form part of your contract and may be changed from time to time to reflect developments such as changing legislation.

SECTION 2 – FORMS

Section 2 sets out the standard forms the council uses for employee administrative functions, such as time off requests and conducting appraisals. Using these forms and templates will enable requests to be dealt with efficiently and fairly for all employees.

If there are any changes to your personal details, please ensure you keep the council up to date by completing the 'Change of personal details' form (Appendix A).

If you are unsure about anything mentioned in either this handbook or your contract of employment, please contact the Parish Clerk who will be happy to help you.

Thank you for choosing to work for Normandy Parish Council and may your time here be rewarding, successful and happy.

GENERAL NOTE ON CONTENTS OF HANDBOOK

References to 'Parish Clerk' throughout this handbook may refer to an alternate job title the council has designated as Proper Officer. All references to roles are non-gender specific.

SECTION 1 – RULES AND POLICIES

EMPLOYEE CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Status of the code

- 1.1 As a local government officer, your conduct must be beyond reproach and you must do nothing that might give rise to the suspicion, however ill-founded, that you are in any way influenced by improper motives.
- 1.2 This code sets out the standards that are expected of employees and provides a framework that will help to promote good practice. The code should be read in conjunction with the policies in the employee handbook and the terms and conditions of your employment contract.

2. Who does the code apply to?

- 2.1 The code covers all employees of Normandy Parish Council, including agency employees, temporary workers and internal contractors who carry out work on behalf of the council.

3. Responsibility

- 3.1 All employees of the council are expected to give the highest possible standard of service to the public, and where it is part of their duties, to provide appropriate advice to councillors and fellow employees with impartiality.
- 3.2 All employees are encouraged, without fear or recrimination, to bring to the attention of the appropriate level of management any impropriety or breach of procedure that comes to their attention.

4. Abuses of the code

- 4.1 Employees who attempt to abuse this policy may face disciplinary action. The council takes false or misleading accusations very seriously which may result in further action taken through the disciplinary procedure. This does not include ill-founded allegations that were made in good faith using the council's Confidential Reporting (Whistleblowing) Policy.

5. Publicising and distributing the code

- 5.1 Every employee of the council will be issued with an employee handbook, containing the code of conduct for employees. A copy of the employee handbook will also be made available via the council's website.

6. Reviewing the code

- 6.1 The council will keep the operation of this policy under review and will make changes to the policy where appropriate, for example as a result of changing legislation.
- 6.2 Responsibility for reviewing and amending the employee code of conduct and policies contained in the employee handbook will rest with the Human Resources Committee.

7. Equality and diversity

- 7.1 The council is committed to treating all members of the local community, councillors and employees with fairness and equity.

7.2 All employees have a responsibility to comply with the policies of the employee handbook designed to support this aim, principally the Equal Opportunities Statement.

8. Standards and attitude

8.1 All employees must give the highest possible standards of service to the public, councillors and other employees.

8.2 Employees are expected to remember their responsibilities to the community they serve and ensure a courteous, efficient and impartial delivery of services to all groups in accordance with the council's policies.

9. Dress code

9.1 All employees are required to be neat, clean and tidy whilst at work, whether working on the council's premises or elsewhere. Dress should be appropriate to the work undertaken.

9.2 Some employees (depending on the nature of their work) may be provided with a uniform or clothing adorned with the council's name and/or logo. Such clothing should be maintained in a reasonable state of repair.

10. Confidentiality and data protection

10.1 All employees owe a general duty of confidentiality to the council, have a contractual obligation in relation to confidential information and are required to protect official information held in confidence.

10.2 Employees shall not divulge to any person (other than another employee or councillor that requires information for the performance of his/her duties), any information which the employee has obtained by reason of his/her employment to the council, except where that information is anyway in the public domain by virtue of legislation or under the council's publication scheme.

10.3 In particular, no employee shall divulge personal information regarding any employee, person or contractor, having dealings with the council and information relating to tenders or other such issues.

10.4 All information and data must be handled sensitively and processed in accordance with the council's Data Protection Policy. Under the General Data Protection Regulations, individuals have the right to see their own personal data held subject to the rights of confidentiality of any third parties involved in that information.

11. Political neutrality

11.1 Employees serve the council as a whole and must serve all councillors equally ensuring that the individual rights of all councillors are respected.

11.2 Employees must follow the lawfully expressed policies of the council and must not allow their own personal or political opinions to interfere improperly with their work.

12. Relationships with others

12.1 Good working relationships between colleagues are essential. Employees should always treat their colleagues with dignity and respect. Attention is particularly drawn to the council's Equal Opportunities Statement and Bullying and Harassment (Dignity at Work) Policy.

- 12.2 Mutual respect between employees and councillors is essential for good local government and a professional and courteous relationship should be maintained at all times. The council has adopted a Member/Officer Relationship Protocol which outlines the expectations of a good working relationship between employees and councillors.
- 12.3 Similarly, a good relationship with the press and other media outlets can be mutually beneficial to the council. All enquiries for information or comment on issues affecting the work of the council must be referred to the Parish Clerk. The council's Media and Communications Policy provides further guidance for employees.
- 12.4 All relationships of a business or personal nature with external contractors or suppliers, or potential contractors or suppliers, must be declared to the Parish Clerk at the earliest opportunity.
- 12.5 Orders and contracts must be awarded in accordance with council standing orders and financial regulations, on merit and without discrimination. All employees must ensure that no special favour is shown to current or recent former, employees or their partners, close relatives or associates in awarding contracts to businesses run by them or employing them in any capacity.

13. Use of financial resources

- 13.1 Employees must ensure that public funds entrusted to them are used in a responsible and lawful manner. They should strive to ensure value for money to the local community and to avoid legal challenge to the council.
- 13.2 All employees involved in financial activities and transactions on behalf of the council, including budgetary control, payments of accounts, payments of salaries and wages, petty cash and orders for works, goods or services must do so in accordance with financial regulations.

14. Protection of the council's property

- 14.1 Employees must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the council's regalia, equipment and other property that is placed in their charge is kept safe and is protected from damage.
- 14.2 In the general interests of security in the council's premises, employees should take care not to do anything that reduces the level of security. In particular, employees must ensure that doors and windows are shut and locked when leaving any premises and that any security alarms (if present) are set or that arrangements are in place for them to be set later.
- 14.3 If an employee notices a potential lapse in security, they should bring it to the attention of the Parish Clerk. All resources of the council are to be used for the council's business and are not for personal use.

15. Anti-bribery, hospitality, gifts and sponsorship

- 15.1 It is illegal to offer, promise, give, request, agree, receive or accept bribes (Bribery Act 2010). This includes accepting any gift or consideration as an inducement or reward for doing, or refraining from doing, anything in an official capacity or showing favour or disfavour to any person in an official capacity.
- 15.2 In general, the council does not believe that it is appropriate for employees to accept gifts from service users, suppliers or any other person or organisation with which the council has (or might have) business connections. This is because it is important to ensure that no employee acts in any way that is inconsistent with the council's objectives or with the integrity of the council by accepting a gift in circumstances where it could influence, or be seen to influence, that employee's actions or decisions.

- 15.3 Acceptance of gifts by employees may be viewed by the public with suspicion and may make the council extremely vulnerable to criticism. For your own protection, if anyone makes an approach to you which seems to you, or might seem to a third party, to be aimed at obtaining some form of preferential treatment, or in any suspicious circumstances in connection with a contract, you must report the matter to the Parish Clerk, disclosing the fact of the gift, its nature and the identity of the sender.
- 15.4 Employees should not accept personal gifts from contractors and outside suppliers. The only exceptions to this rule are:
- Small gifts of only token value often given by way of trade advertisements to a wide range of people, e.g., calendars, diaries, tape measures and similar articles of use in the workplace.
 - Small gifts of only token value given on the conclusion of a courtesy visit, e.g., to a factory, trade fair or other premises.
- 15.5 Gifts which fall outside the definition above should be politely refused and the council's policy on the acceptance of gifts should be explained. If a gift is delivered to the office without prior warning, unless it falls within the scope of acceptable gifts it should be returned, or if the return of the gift would cause offence the item should be donated to charity.
- 15.6 Employees should only accept offers of hospitality if there is a genuine need to impart information or represent the council in the community. Offers to attend purely social or sporting functions should be accepted only when these are part of the life of the community or where the council should be seen to be represented. They should be authorised by the Parish Clerk, in advance whenever possible.
- 15.7 When receiving authorised hospitality employees should be particularly sensitive as to its timing in relation to decisions which the council may be taking affecting those providing the hospitality. When hospitality must be declined, those making the offer should be courteously but firmly informed of the procedures and standards operating within the council.
- 15.8 All hospitality offered, whether it is accepted or not, and all gifts offered or received, whether they are accepted or returned, must be entered in a register of hospitality and gifts and a note made of the action taken. If you have any doubt about a gift or offer of hospitality, please seek advice from the Parish Clerk.
- 15.9 Where an outside organisation wishes to sponsor or is seeking to sponsor a council activity, whether by invitation, tender, negotiation or voluntarily, the basic conventions concerning acceptance of gifts or hospitality apply. Care must be taken when dealing with contractors or potential contractors.
- 15.10 Where the council wishes to sponsor an event or service, neither an employee nor any partner/civil partner, spouse or relative must benefit from such sponsorship in a direct way without there being full disclosure to the Parish Clerk of any such interest.
- 15.11 Similarly, where the council through sponsorship, grant aid, financial or other means, gives support in the community, employees should ensure that impartial advice is given and that there is no conflict of interest involved.

16. Appointments

- 16.1 If an employee wishes to recommend an individual for employment, they must notify the Parish Clerk. Any potential candidate for employment by the council recommended by an existing employee will be assessed equally alongside all other candidates. Employees shall not canvass any councillor or other employee of the council in respect of candidates seeking employment with the council.

- 16.2 Employees shall disclose to the Parish Clerk any close relationship (partner or family member) between themselves and any person who they know is a candidate for employment with the council. The Parish Clerk shall make any such disclosure to the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.
- 16.3 To avoid accusations of bias, employees must not be involved with appointments where they are related to any applicant or otherwise have a close personal relationship with them. Employees who are involved in appointments must ensure that these are made on merit and on a non-discriminatory basis.

17. Outside commitments

- 17.1 Any employee who wishes to take another job must, before commencing the second job, request and be granted written permission from the Parish Clerk. The council does not prohibit employees from taking secondary employment and will not unreasonably withhold permission for an employee to work in a second job, provided that the second job does not interfere, and is not likely to interfere, with the performance of the employee's job with the council.
- 17.2 You should not partake in any outside interests, voluntary activity or work that conflict with the work of the council. If you are in any doubt whatsoever that any outside activities or employment might be detrimental to the council's interests, you must discuss the matter with the Parish Clerk.

18. Personal interests

- 18.1 You must declare, in writing, to the Parish Clerk any financial or non-financial interests which could bring about conflict with the council's interests. If you are in any doubt about a potential conflict of interest, you should bring the matter to the attention of your line manager so that a decision can be made as to how best to proceed.
- 18.2 You must not make or become involved with any official or professional decisions about matters in which you have a personal interest. You must declare to the Parish Clerk membership of any organisation not open to the public, requiring any commitment of allegiance, or which has secrecy about rules or membership or conduct, for example, the Freemasons.
- 18.3 The Parish Clerk must make any declarations required by this paragraph, in writing, to the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.

19. Use of non-financial resources for personal purposes

- 19.1 You should not use or abuse the council's equipment and other resources for your own personal purposes, either at home or at the office, regardless of whether such use is for your personal gain.
- 19.2 However, in certain circumstances and with the prior agreement of the Parish Clerk, it may be possible for you to make reasonable use of the council's resources, for example, photocopying. In such a case, the council will make an appropriate charge for the use of its resources.

20. Chairman of the Human Resources Committee

- 20.1 Irrespective of line management or communication lines indicated within council policies for highlighting concerns or reporting actions or events which an individual employee may believe are contrary to the interests of the council or other employees, any employee may directly approach the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee with their concerns if they feel it appropriate to do so.

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

21. Introduction and duties

- 21.1 The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 sets out the general duty of employers and states the main principle as 'it shall be the duty of every employer to ensure, as far as is reasonably practical, the health, safety and welfare at work of all its employees.'
- 21.2 Normandy Parish Council recognises and accepts this responsibility, and for the health and safety of any other person who may be affected by its activities as far as is reasonably practical.
- 21.3 The council also recognises that every accident, however slight, is a matter for concern and will actively promote health and safety at all times.
- 21.4 The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 also sets out the duties of employees while at work. Employees have a duty 'to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work.'

22. Sensible risk management

- 22.1 The council will implement a Health and Safety Policy to fulfil its responsibilities, and adopt a sensible approach to risk management designed to:
- Ensure employees and the public are properly protected.
 - Ensure that risks that are created are managed responsibly.
 - Ensure that precautions taken are appropriate to the perceived level of risk.
 - Establish an audit trail of risk assessment records.
- 22.2 The sensible risk management approach will ensure the council does not:
- Use 'Health and Safety' as a reason for preventing an activity.
 - Scare people by exaggerating risks or publicising trivial risks.
 - Create unrealistic demands prior to agreeing an activity.

23. Risk assessments

- 23.1 The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999 require employers to carry out risk assessments.
- 23.2 A risk assessment should be a practical exercise examining what, in your work, could cause harm to people, and putting in place controls to minimise the identified risks.
- 23.3 The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) promote a risk assessment process which follows the five following steps:
- Identify the hazards.
 - Decide who might be harmed and how.
 - Evaluate the risks and decide on precautions.
 - Record the findings and implement them.
 - Review the risk assessment and update if necessary.
- 23.4 The council will conduct risk assessments for any event it holds and report the findings to the Council.
- 23.5 The council will conduct regular risk assessments of its playground equipment and report the findings to the Estates and Facilities Committee.

- 23.6 A full record of all risk assessments will be kept by the Parish Clerk, including details of any remedial action taken.
- 23.7 A written record of any accidents, injuries or incidents will be retained by the Parish Clerk and referred to when completing any risk assessment.

24. Introduction and duties

- 24.1 The council will ensure all employees are trained in the use of any work items provided to them to fulfil their duties.
- 24.2 The council will actively involve employees in completion of risk assessments connected to their respective roles and encourage employees to raise any health and safety concerns they have with their line managers.
- 24.3 The council recognise its obligations to consult with its employees as detailed in the Health and Safety (Consultation with Employees) Regulations 1996 and the Safety Representatives and Safety Committee Regulations 1977.

25. Other legislation

- 25.1 The council will be mindful of other legislation which may affect its responsibilities for Health and Safety and take these into account when assessing risks, in particular:
- The Workplace (Health, Safety and Welfare) Regulations 1992
 - The Personal Protective Equipment at Work Regulations 1992
 - The Manual Handling Operations Regulations 1992
 - The Health and Safety (Display Screen Equipment) Regulations 1992
- 25.2 The council is also aware of other legislation which could affect its future responsibilities for health and safety, in particular:
- The Health and Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981
 - The Electricity at Work Regulations 1989
 - The Confined Spaces Regulations 1997
 - The Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998
 - The Lifting Operations and Lifting Equipment Regulations 1998
 - The Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations 2002 (COSHH)
 - The Work at Height Regulations 2005
 - The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005
 - The Control of Asbestos Regulations 2012
 - The Reporting of Injuries, Disease and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations 2013 (RIDDOR)

26. Insurance

- 26.1 The council will meet its legal obligations to insure against liability or disease to their employees arising out of their employment under the provisions of the Employers' Liability (Compulsory Insurance) Act 1969.

RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

27. Introduction

- 27.1 Normandy Parish Council recognises that it has a responsibility to take all reasonable and practical measures to safeguard its employees, the people it works with and provides services for, and to protect the natural and built environments for which it is responsible.
- 27.2 The council is aware that some risks cannot be fully eliminated and has in place a strategy that provides a structured, systematic and focused approach to managing risk.

28. Objectives

- 28.1 The objectives of the risk management policy are to:
- Integrate risk management into the culture of the council.
 - Manage risk in accordance with best practice and legislative requirements.
 - Minimise loss, disruption, injury and damages.
 - Inform policy and operational decisions by identifying risks and their likely impact.
 - Raise awareness of the need for risk management.
- 28.2 These objectives will be achieved by:
- Identification of risk.
 - Undertaking risk assessments.
 - Managing the risk and recording actions.
 - Incorporating risk management considerations into council processes.
 - Providing appropriate training.
 - Establishing clear roles, responsibilities and reporting lines.
 - Effective communication with, and active involvement of, employees.

LONE WORKING POLICY

29. Introduction and definition

- 29.1 The Health and Safety Executive defines lone workers as 'those who work by themselves without close or direct supervision.'
- 29.2 Normandy Parish Council recognises that on occasions its employees may be required to work by themselves for significant periods of time without close or direct supervision in the community, in isolated work areas and out of office hours.
- 29.3 Under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, the council has a duty of care to advise and assess risk for workers when they work by themselves in these circumstances. However, employees have responsibilities to take reasonable care of themselves and other people affected by their work and to co-operate with their employers in meeting their legal obligations.

30. Scope and aims of the policy

- 30.1 This policy applies to all situations involving lone working arising in connection with the duties and activities of the council.
- 30.2 The aim of this policy is to:
- (a) Increase employee awareness of safety issues relating to lone working.
 - (b) Ensure that the risk of lone working is assessed in a systematic and ongoing way, and that safe systems and methods of work are put in place to reduce the risk so far as is reasonably practicable.
 - (c) Ensure that appropriate training is available to all employees in all areas that equips them to recognise risk and provides practical advice on safety when working alone.
 - (d) Ensure that appropriate support is available to employees who have to work alone.
 - (e) Encourage full reporting and recording of all adverse incidents relating to lone working.

31. Responsibilities

- 31.1 The Parish Clerk, on behalf of the council, is responsible for:
- Ensuring that there are arrangements for identifying, evaluating and managing risk associated with lone working.
 - Providing resources for putting the policy into practice.
 - Ensuring that there are arrangements for monitoring incidents linked to lone working and that the effectiveness of this policy is regularly reviewed.
- 31.2 The Councillors and the Parish Clerk are responsible for:
- Ensuring that all employees are aware of this policy.
 - Taking all possible steps to ensure that lone workers are at no greater risk than other employees.
 - Identify situations where people work alone and decide whether a system can be adopted to avoid workers carrying out tasks on their own.
 - Ensuring that risk assessments are carried out and reviewed regularly.
 - Putting procedures and safe systems of work into practice which are designed to eliminate or reduce the risks associated with working alone.
 - Ensuring that employees identified as being at risk are given appropriate information, instruction and training.
 - Managing the effectiveness of preventative measures through an effective system of reporting, investigating and recording incidents.

- Ensuring that appropriate support is given to employees involved in any incident.
- Providing a mobile phone or other personal safety equipment, if and where this is felt to be desirable.

31.3 Employees are responsible for:

- Taking reasonable care of themselves and others affected by their actions.
- Following guidance and procedures designed for safe working.
- Reporting all incidents that may affect the health and safety of themselves or others.
- Taking part in training designed to meet the requirements of the policy.
- Reporting any dangers or potential dangers they identify or any concerns they have in respect of working alone.
- Always maintaining good communication to minimise risk.

32. Guidance for risk assessments of lone working

32.1 Risk assessment is essential to good risk management. Assessment will be carried out for and on behalf of all employees whose working practice makes them vulnerable. This includes employees that are site based but work in isolation as well as any mobile employee whose work takes them out into the community.

32.2 Recommendations will be made to eliminate or reduce the risk to the lowest level reasonably practicable. A lone worker checklist will be completed and used as a tool to identify if the control measures are adequate and if not, what modifications or additional actions can be considered necessary to help reduce the risks associated with lone working.

32.3 Risk assessments for site based lone workers will include:

- Is the person fit and suitable to work alone.
- Safe access and exit.
- Risk of violence.
- Safety of equipment for individual use.
- Channels of communication in an emergency.
- Site security.
- Security arrangements, i.e., alarm systems and response to personal alarms.
- Level and adequacy of on/off site supervision.
- Any additional considerations for vulnerable employees.

32.4 Risk assessments for mobile lone workers will, additionally, include:

- Travelling between sites.
- Reporting and recording arrangements.
- Communication and traceability and personal safety/security.

33. Incident reporting

33.1 An incident is defined as 'an unplanned or uncontrolled event or sequence of events that has the potential to cause injury ill health or damage'.

33.2 To maintain an appropriate record of incidents involving lone workers it is essential that all incidents be reported to the Parish Clerk who will prioritise each incident and identify any immediate action. Employees should ensure that all incidents where they feel threatened or unsafe are reported, including incidents of verbal abuse.

34. Support for employees

- 34.1 Employees working for the council should know that their safety comes first. Employees should be aware of how to deal with situations where they feel they are at risk or unsafe. They should also be able to recognise how their own actions could influence or even trigger an aggressive response. The Parish Clerk will ensure that all lone workers' training needs are assessed and that they receive appropriate training.
- 34.2 In the event of a violent incident involving a lone worker, the Parish Clerk will immediately ensure that the employee receives and necessary medical treatment and/or advice. The Parish Clerk will also consider whether the employee needs specific information or assistance relating to legal or insurance aspects, ensure appropriate written and verbal reporting of any violent incident is recorded and report the incident to the police.
- 34.3 If the employee subjected to the violent incident is the Parish Clerk, the next most senior employee should take responsibility for the above actions, including reporting the incident to the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.

35. Good practice for lone workers

- 35.1 The following guidelines exist for the safety of lone working employees:
- During their working hours, all employees leaving the workplace should leave written details of where they are going and their estimated time of return.
 - If, during a trip away from the workplace, plans change significantly, this should be communicated.
 - Telephone contact between the lone worker and a colleague is advisable. Employees should avoid being left on their own with a client in their workplace or leaving a colleague/councillor in this situation.
 - Lone workers should have access to adequate first aid facilities and mobile workers should carry a first aid kit suitable for treating minor injuries.
 - Lone workers should be provided with a mobile phone and other personal safety equipment where this is necessary.
 - Employees should never transport a child or vulnerable adult on their own.
 - Before making a home visit, the lone worker must have full knowledge of the hazards and risks to which he or she may be exposed to and apply control measure to eliminate the potential risks.

36. Exemptions

- 36.1 Employees and volunteers are exempt from working alone in certain situations:
- Young persons under instruction in a fixed base (for example, work experience, helping with council tasks, etc.).
 - Where activities and work with substances/machinery could be hazardous to health.

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

37. Introduction

- 37.1 Normandy Parish Council recognises that the day-to-day operations of the council can impact both directly and indirectly on the environment.
- 37.2 The council aims to protect and improve the environment through good management and by adopting best practice wherever possible.
- 37.3 The council will work to integrate environmental considerations into our business decisions and adopt more environmentally friendly alternatives wherever possible, throughout our operations.

38. Objectives

- 38.1 To discharge its responsibilities, the management will:
- Bring this policy to the attention of all stakeholders.
 - Carry out regular audits of the environmental management system.
 - Comply fully with all relevant legal requirements, codes of practice and regulations at international, national and local levels.
 - Eliminate risks to the environment, where possible, through selection and design of materials, buildings, facilities, equipment and processes.
 - Ensure that emergency procedures are in place at all locations for dealing with environmental issues.
 - Identify and manage environmental risks and hazards.
 - Improve the environmental efficiency of the council's transport and travel.
 - Minimise waste and increase recycling within the framework of the council's waste management procedures.
 - Only engage contractors who can demonstrate due regard to environmental matters.
 - Prevent pollution to land, air and water.
 - Promote environmentally responsible purchasing.
 - Provide adequate resources to control environmental risks arising from work activities.
 - Provide suitable training to enable employees to deal with their specific areas of environmental control.
 - Reduce the use of water, energy and other natural resources.
 - Source materials from sustainable supply, whenever practical.
 - Consider the impact of noise and light pollution.

EMAIL AND INTERNET USAGE POLICY

39. Introduction

- 39.1 Normandy Parish Council recognises that email and internet are important information and communication systems which are used during council business. This policy provides guidelines and procedures to protect users and the council.
- 39.2 This policy applies to all employees who have access to the internet and email facilities via council computers. The email policy applies to all councillors in their correspondence with employees and/or other councillors.

40. Internet usage

- 40.1 Employees are encouraged to use the internet responsibly as part of their official and professional activities.
- 40.2 Information obtained via the internet and published in the name of the council must be relevant and professional. A disclaimer must be stated where personal views are expressed.
- 40.3 The use of the internet to access and/or distribute any kind of offensive material will not be tolerated and employees may be subject to disciplinary action.
- 40.4 The equipment, services and technology used to access the internet are the property of the council. The council reserves the right to monitor internet traffic and monitor and access data that is composed, sent or received through its online connections.

41. Unacceptable use of the internet

- 41.1 Unacceptable use of the internet by employees includes, but is not limited to:
- sending or posting discriminatory, harassing or threatening messages or images
 - using computers to perpetrate any form of fraud, and/or software, film or music piracy
 - obtaining, using or disclosing another employee's password without authorisation
 - sharing confidential material or proprietary information outside of the council
 - hacking into unauthorised websites
 - sending or posting information that is defamatory to the council, its services, councillors and/or members of the public
 - introducing malicious software onto council computers and/or jeopardising the security of the council's electronic communication systems
 - sending or posting chain letters, solicitations or advertisements not related to council business or activities
 - passing off personal views as those representing the council
 - accessing inappropriate internet sites, web pages or chat rooms
- 41.2 If an employee is unsure about what constitutes acceptable internet usage, then they should ask their line manager for further guidance and clarification.

42. Email

- 42.1 The use of email is encouraged as it provides an efficient system of communication.

- 42.2 Email should be regarded as written paper documents for the purposes of production, use, retention and disclosure and can be called upon under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Personal information should be kept in accordance with the principles established in the Data Protection Act 1998 and subsequent supporting legislation.
- 42.3 The council reserves the right to open any email file stored on the council's computer system.
- 42.4 The following guidelines for email use should be observed by all employees and councillors:
- use appropriate language to avoid unintentional misunderstandings
 - respect the confidentiality of information contained within emails, even if encountered inadvertently
 - check with the sender if there is any doubt regarding the authenticity of a message
 - do not open any attachment unless certain of the authenticity of the sender
 - only copy emails to others where appropriate and necessary
 - emails which create obligations or give instructions on behalf of the council must be sent by officers only, not councillors
 - emails must comply with common codes of courtesy, decency and privacy

43. Reporting and sanctions

- 43.1 If a councillor receives an email from an employee which they believe is contrary to the guidance provided in this policy, it should be reported to the Parish Clerk who will consider use of the council's formal disciplinary procedure or refer the matter to the Human Resources Committee depending on the severity of the event.
- 43.2 If an employee receives an email from another employee which they believe is contrary to the guidance provided in this policy, it should be reported to the Parish Clerk who will consider use of the council's formal disciplinary procedure or refer the matter to the Human Resources Committee depending on the severity of the event.
- 43.3 If an employee receives an email from a councillor which they believe is contrary to the guidance provided in this policy, the employee is entitled to consider use of the council's grievance policy and/or report the issue through the procedures outlined in the Members' Code of Conduct.
- 43.4 If a councillor receives an email from another councillor which they believe is contrary to the guidance provided in this policy, the councillor is entitled to consider reporting the issue through the procedures outlined in the Members' Code of Conduct.

44. Security

- 44.1 Only software purchased by the council shall be installed on the council's computer system. Software licences shall be retained as proof of authenticity.

PROTECTING VULNERABLE PERSONS POLICY

45. Introduction

- 45.1 Normandy Parish Council is committed to taking all reasonable precautions to safeguard the welfare of children and vulnerable persons that use its services and promotes a safeguarding culture and environment.

46. Safeguarding

- 46.1 The council will endeavour or safeguard children and vulnerable persons, in that:
- The welfare of the child and vulnerable adult is paramount
 - All children and vulnerable adults have the right to protection from abuse
 - All suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately
 - All employees, volunteers and elected members of the council have a responsibility to report concerns to the appropriate officer
 - All employees, volunteers and elected members of the council are not to deal with situations of abuse or to decide if abuse has occurred

47. Duty of care

- 47.1 Disclosure and Baring Service (DBS) checks will be carried out in accordance with the eligibility criteria in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975.
- 47.2 Normandy Parish Council has a duty of care to protect others from harm. This includes a range of processes including risk assessment and health and safety practices.
- 47.3 Allegations or suspicions of inappropriate behaviour by an employee or councillor must be referred immediately to the Parish Clerk who will refer the matter to Social Services at Surrey County Council for investigation.

You must refer – you must not investigate

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES STATEMENT

48. Introduction

- 48.1 The purpose of this policy is to provide equal opportunities to all employees, irrespective of their gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, marital status or social class. The council opposes all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination.
- 48.2 All employees whether full-time, part-time, fixed contract, agency workers or temporary, will be treated fairly and equally. Selection for employment, promotion, training, remuneration or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential, and the talents and resources of the workforce will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.

49. Principles

- 49.1 Discrimination, direct or indirect, based on a person's gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, marital status, social class or other irrelevant distinction is unacceptable.
- 49.2 In addition to being unacceptable, such forms of discrimination represent a waste of human resources and a denial of the opportunity for individual fulfilment.
- 49.3 The council seeks to involve all employees in the continuing development and implementation of this policy.

50. Members of the public

- 50.1 The council recognises that many members of the public use its services or visit its premises. The council takes seriously its responsibility to these people and affirms that they will be treated with the same respect and rights. Likewise, it is not acceptable for employees to be treated unfairly by service users or visitors.

51. Organisational responsibilities

- 51.1 The council's Human Resources Committee is responsible for overseeing the implementation, monitoring and review of the Equal Opportunities Statement.
- 51.2 The Parish Clerk's responsibilities include communicating the policy and its implementation to employees, monitoring its implementation, and advising councillors on recruitment and other matters concerning equal treatment.
- 51.3 The co-operation of all employees is essential for the success of this policy. However, ultimate responsibility for achieving the policy objectives and for ensuring compliance with relevant statutes and codes of practice lies with the council as a whole.
- 51.4 Intentional breaches to the provisions or spirit of this policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary action in accordance with the council's Disciplinary Policy.

52. Legal framework

52.1 The policy will be implemented within the framework of the relevant legislation, the main statute being the Equality Act 2010. This brought together 116 separate pieces of legislation to provide a framework to protect the rights of individuals and advance equal opportunities for all. The main pieces of legislation which have merged under the new act are:

- Equal Pay Act 1970
- Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- Sex Discrimination Act 1975
- Disability Discrimination Act 1995
- The Protection from Harassment Act 1997
- Gender Reassignment Regulations 1999
- Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000
- Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003
- Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003
- Employment Equality (Age) Regulations 2006
- Equality Act (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2007

MEMBER / OFFICER RELATIONS PROTOCOL

53. Introduction

- 53.1 The relationship between councillors and officers is an essential ingredient that goes into the successful work of the council. This relationship should be characterised by mutual respect, informality and trust. Councillors and officers should feel free to speak to one another openly and honestly.
- 53.2 The purpose of this protocol is to help councillors and officers continue this relationship and give guidance on their respective roles and expectations on their relationships with each other. It also provides guidance on what to do on the rare occasions when things go wrong within this relationship.
- 53.3 The protocol should be read and operated in the context of any relevant legislation and national and local codes of conduct.

54. Roles of councillors and officers

- 54.1 The respective roles of the councillors and officers can be summarised as follows:

Councillors and officers are servants of the public, and they are indispensable to one another, although they have different responsibilities. Councillors are responsible to the electorate and serve only so long as their term of office lasts. Officers are responsible to the council. Their job is to give advice to councillors and to the council, and to carry out the council's work under the direction and control of the council and its committees or sub-committees. Mutual respect between councillors and officers is essential to the successful working of a local council.

- 54.2 Councillors are responsible for determining the policy of the council and providing strategic leadership, representing the council externally when properly authorised to do so, and acting as advocates on behalf of their constituents. It is not the role of councillors to involve themselves in the day-to-day management of the council.
- 54.3 Chairmen and vice chairmen of the council and its committees or sub-committees have additional responsibilities. Due to the nature of those responsibilities, their relationships with officers may be different from and more complex than those of councillors without those responsibilities. This is recognised in the expectations they are entitled to have. However, such councillors must still respect the impartiality of officers, must not ask them to undertake work of a party-political nature, or to do anything which may compromise the nature of their role.
- 54.4 The role of officers is to give advice and information to the councillors and to implement the policies determined by the council. In giving such advice to councillors, and in preparing and presenting reports, it is the responsibility of the officer to express his/her own professional views and recommendations, without favouring any political party view.
- 54.5 Certain senior officers, e.g., Proper Officer and RFO, have responsibilities in law over and above their obligations to council and/or individual councillors, and councillors must respect these responsibilities and must not obstruct officers in the discharge of their duties.

55. Expectations

55.1 Councillors can expect from officers:

- A commitment to the council as a whole, and not to any group or individual councillor
- A working partnership
- An understanding of and support for respective roles, workloads and pressures
- A timely response to enquiries and complaints
- Impartial, professional advice, not influenced by political views or preference
- Regular, up to date information on matters that can reasonably be considered appropriate and relevant to councillors
- Awareness of and sensitivity to the political environment
- Respect, dignity and courtesy
- Training and development in order to carry out their role effectively
- Integrity, mutual support and appropriate confidentiality
- That officers will not use their relationship with councillors to advance their personal interests or to influence decisions improperly

55.2 Officers can expect from councillors:

- A working partnership
- An understanding of and support for respective roles, workloads and pressures
- Respect, dignity and courtesy
- Integrity, mutual support and appropriate confidentiality
- Not to be subjected to bullying or harassment or to be put under undue pressure
- That councillors will not use their position or relationship with officers to advance their personal interests or those of others or to influence decisions improperly
- That councillors will at all times comply with the Members' Code of Conduct and other policies

56. Limitations upon behaviour

56.1 The distinct role of councillors and officers necessarily imposes limitations upon behaviour. By way of illustration, and not as an exclusive list:

- Close personal relationships between councillors and officers can often confuse these separate roles and get in the way of the proper discharge of the council's functions, not least by creating the perception in others that a particular councillor or officer may secure advantageous treatment
- The need to maintain the separate roles means that there are limits to the matters on which councillors may seek the advice of officers, both in relation to personal matters and party political issues
- Relationships with particular individuals or party groups should not be such as to create public suspicion that an employee favours that councillor or group above others

57. When things go wrong

57.1 From time to time the relationship between councillors and officers may break down or become strained. Whilst it will always be preferable to resolve matters informally through conciliation, there are formal procedures if this is not possible.

57.2 An officer may have recourse to the council's formal Grievance Policy and/or reporting to the District Council's Monitoring Officer to raise a Members' Code of Conduct complaint.

57.3 A councillor may have recourse to the council's formal Disciplinary Policy.

RECRUITMENT POLICY

58. Introduction

- 58.1 The council will use the employment guidance provided in the National Joint Council for Local Government Services 'Green Book'.
- 58.2 The council has made clear its commitment to equal opportunities for all by the adoption of an Equal Opportunities Statement. All selection processes must take place within the framework laid down by this policy.

59. Aims

- 59.1 The key aims of the councils recruitment policy are:
- To maximise the effectiveness of the recruitment and selection process
 - To ensure the recruitment and selection processes are consistent, fair and transparent, and in accordance with legislation
 - To ensure the recruitment and selection processes are in accordance with the councils Equal Opportunities Statement

60. Applications

- 60.1 The council will provide a job description and person specification for each vacancy, and these documents will form the basis for the selection process. The Parish Clerk will be responsible for ensuring these are reviewed and reflect the current responsibilities of the role.
- 60.2 The person specification will include a list of skills, experience and qualifications which are essential and/or desirable for the role. Candidates will be assessed and selected for interview against the person specification criteria.
- 60.3 The job description and person specification will be included in the recruitment pack, which will also provide details of working hours, pay scales and type and length of contract.
- 60.4 Vacancies will be advertised internally and externally, except where the council are amending a temporary or fixed-term contract to a permanent position, where the existing post-holder (assuming their performance is satisfactory) may be offered the position prior to any other advertising.
- 60.5 The council will consider the viability of part-time and/or job share candidates for each role and will make clear in its advertisement if this will be considered.
- 60.6 The council uses application forms for recruitment in respect of all employees and will not accept CVs alone. All potential applicants should be directed to apply formally through the official contact named in the advertisement.

61. Shortlisting

- 61.1 The council will agree a shortlist panel to assess the applications. The composition of the panel will vary according to the type of post being filled.
- 61.2 Any councillor with a personal connection to any of the candidates will be excluded from the entire selection process.

- 61.3 As soon as possible after the closing date for applications, the shortlisting panel will select candidates for interview by assessing the information in their application form against the job description and person specification.

62. Interviews

- 62.1 The council will agree the composition of the interview panel, which will normally comprise the members of the shortlisting panel.
- 62.2 To ensure a consistent and fair approach, all candidates will be asked similar questions, with supplementary questions structured around each candidate to enable individuals to demonstrate their relevant skills and abilities. The questions will vary depending on the vacancy.
- 62.3 The interview panel must take extreme care to ensure they do not imply discrimination by asking questions about personal circumstances which are unrelated to the job. Such questions are contrary to the councils Equal Opportunities Statement.
- 62.4 Each member of the interview panel will take notes to support their assessment of the candidates' suitability for the role, and the panel may agree a scoring system to help objectively assess the candidates.
- 62.5 Once all the candidates have been interviewed the panel members should compare their notes and agree the most suitable candidate, ensuring their decision is based on the criteria in the job description and person specification.

63. Notification and appointment

- 63.1 Post interview arrangements are the responsibility of the Parish Clerk, or where the vacancy is for the Parish Clerk role, the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.
- 63.2 Candidates should be notified as soon as possible of the outcome. A verbal offer of appointment may be made to the successful candidate but must be formally confirmed in writing. The offer is conditional on obtaining satisfactory references and, where applicable, proof of eligibility to work in the UK and any copies of qualification certificates.
- 63.3 If unsatisfactory responses to references are received, the council may reconsider the offer of appointment. If the offer is subsequently withdrawn, the council may make an offer to one of the original unsuccessful candidates or decide to begin the recruitment process again.

PAY POLICY

64. Introduction

64.1 Normandy Parish Council actively promotes equal opportunities in employment and welcomes diversity within its workforce. The council is committed to ensuring a clear and fair pay policy for its employees. This policy supports those principles in explaining how pay is calculated, reviewed and paid to employees.

65. Legislation

65.1 The relevant legislation concerning equal pay is found within the Equal Pay Act 1970, the Equal Pay (Amendment) Regulations 1983 and the Pensions Act 2011.

65.2 It is included in other United Kingdom legislation, European Community Law, the EU Directive on Fixed Term Work and resultant UK regulations including the Working Time Regulations 1998.

65.3 The legislation applies to all employees regardless of full or part-time status, casual or temporary contract or length of service or any other consideration.

66. Pay scales

66.1 To comply with the legislation, the council will operate a transparent pay system based on objective criteria and publish pay details of employees in line with the requirements of the Local Government Transparency Code 2015.

66.2 All employees' pay scales will be determined by their grading, which will align to the National Joint Council for Local Government Services (NJC) published pay scales.

66.3 Employees will be appointed to either a defined salary scale point, or within a defined salary scale published for their role.

66.4 The starting salary on appointment will normally be at the lower end of the salary scale, subject to negotiation based on the appointee's level of relevant knowledge and experience.

66.5 One salary point will be added to an employee's salary, up to a maximum of four points, for success in obtaining or already holding any of the following relevant qualifications:

- The Certificate in Local Council Administration (CILCA)
- The Certificate of Higher Education in Community Engagement and Governance – Level 1 or equivalent qualification previously awarded by the University of Gloucestershire
- The Diploma in Higher Education in Community Engagement and Governance or equivalent qualification previously awarded by the University of Gloucestershire
- BA (Hons) degree in Community Engagement and Governance or equivalent qualification previously awarded by the University of Gloucestershire

67. Pay reviews

67.1 Each employee will receive an annual appraisal, which will include a review of their salary.

67.2 Subject to satisfactory performance, employees appointed within a scale will progress automatically through the salary scale by annual increments until they reach the maximum salary in the range.

67.3 Increments will be payable on 1 April annually. The council may withhold an increment if it is considered that performance fell below the expected level following an annual appraisal, or award additional increments for exemplary performance.

67.4 Progression for employees appointed on a single point salary will depend on their performance and will be subject to agreement by the Human Resources Committee. Increments for employees on a single point salary will be payable on a date to be agreed by the Human Resources Committee.

68. Salary payments

68.1 Employees are paid in arrears and receive payment by bank transfer on the 28th of each month, or if the 28th is a weekend or bank holiday, the previous working day.

68.2 In December, pay day may be moved forward to an earlier date of the month, which will be advised to employees in advance.

REDUNDANCY POLICY

69. Introduction

- 69.1 Normandy Parish Council aims to maintain and enhance the efficiency and financial sustainability of the council in a way which will, as far as possible, safeguard the employment of its employees.
- 69.2 However, the council recognises that there may be changes in service or organisational requirements which may affect staffing needs. In such circumstances, the council will seek to minimise the effect of redundancies through the provisions made in this policy.
- 69.3 Reasons why redundancies may be considered may include the following:
- The council is going to close some or all of the services it currently provides
 - The council has less need for a certain type of work and therefore needs less employees
 - After a restructuring exercise or reorganisation of work, some roles are no longer required

70. Scope

- 70.1 In line with its Equal Opportunities Statement, the council is committed to ensuring that this policy does not discriminate directly or indirectly on grounds of gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, marital status, social class or trade union membership and activity.
- 70.2 In addition, part-time employees and those working under fixed-term contracts will, under no circumstances, be singled out for selection on different criteria to those applied to full-time employees.

71. Preventative measures

- 71.1 Where the need for redundancies has been identified, and in an attempt to avoid these occurring, one or more of the following measures may be considered:
- Job-sharing, part-time employment and/or other flexible working arrangements
 - A review of existing workloads and overtime levels
 - A salary freeze for a specific period
 - Suspending advertising and recruitment
 - Discontinuing casual employment contracts
 - The likely effects of natural wastage
- 71.2 Any measure being considered will ensure that it does not adversely affect service delivery and development or prevent the council from recruiting Human Resources to help avert or prevent the conditions which give rise to the problem.

72. Compulsory redundancies

- 72.1 When selecting employees for redundancy, the following criteria (not necessarily in order of priority) will be considered:
- Loss of contract-based work or funding for a post
 - Relevant experience, qualifications, capability and adaptability
 - Appraisal records
 - Attendance and disciplinary records
 - Further social criteria relevant to affected employees e.g., employment prospects due to disability, age, etc.

- 72.2 No employee will be selected for redundancy for any of the following:
- Maternity related reasons
 - On grounds of gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, marital status or social class
 - Health and safety related reasons
 - For asserting a statutory right
 - Trade union related reasons
 - For carrying out the function of, or standing as, an employee representative
- 72.3 In circumstances where the council plans to make 20 or more employees redundant it will act in accordance with relevant legislation in force at that time, follow a formal consultation process in conjunction with the recognised trade union and notify the Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (BERR).

73. Consultation

- 73.1 When the council has reached a decision on which posts are being made redundant, they will arrange consultation meetings with those employees affected. These meetings will involve all employees concerned including those who may be absent from work due to maternity/paternity.
- 73.2 The initial meeting will be to advise that the affected employee(s) that they are under risk of redundancy. At this meeting, a copy of this policy will be re-distributed to the employee(s).
- 73.3 Directly following the meeting, the affected employee(s) will be issued with written details on:
- The grounds on which the redundancy is being considered
 - The process that will be followed
 - An invitation to attend a further meeting to discuss the matter in person
- 73.4 Subsequent meetings, to be held within two weeks of the initial consultation, will take place with affected employees on a one-to-one basis.
- 73.5 Notice of dismissal will not be issued until the consultation period has been completed. In such cases, notice periods are as follows:

Length of continuous service	Notice entitlement
One month – 2 years	1 week
2 years – 3 years	2 weeks
Each additional year (up to 12 years)	One additional week
12 years plus	12 weeks (maximum entitlement)

74. Suitable alternative employment

- 74.1 Employees under notice of redundancy will be advised of all vacancies within the council, including those which are expected to arise, during the period of their notice.
- 74.2 For each available vacancy the council will establish whether an employee under notice of redundancy should be assimilated (see below) into the vacant post or offered a redeployment interview for it. Records of this process will be kept on file for six months.

75. Assimilation

- 75.1 Assimilation will occur when a vacancy is similar to a job being made redundant. The council will determine this by comparing the two job descriptions and person specifications and assessing similarity based on 90% or more match. This comparison will be made at the start of the redundancy process.
- 75.2 Where only one employee meets the criteria for assimilation for a vacancy they will be automatically be placed into the available post.
- 75.3 Where more than one employee is eligible for assimilation to a vacancy, each will be invited to an interview. In such cases this is no longer assimilation, but redeployment and interviews will take place under those conditions (see below).
- 75.4 Employees may have a union representative or a work colleague of their choice present at the interview, in an advisory capacity.

76. Redeployment

- 76.1 Where a vacancy is not similar enough to justify assimilation, but there is a 70-89% match, the employee will be invited to a redeployment interview.
- 76.2 The employee may have a union representative or a work colleague of their choice present at the interview, in an advisory capacity.
- 76.3 The purpose of the re-deployment interview is to:
- Establish whether, with a reasonable amount of training, if necessary, the employee is able to satisfactorily undertake the tasks detailed in the job description for the alternative post. This will be done by:
 - Considering the employee's complete work experience to date (whether paid or voluntary)
 - The skills they have acquired over this time
 - Whether these constitute at least 90% of the essential requirements for the vacant position
 - Establish whether the employee considers the post to be a suitable alternative and is willing to accept it.
- 76.4 Where two employees are equally successful in applying for the same post, the post may if an additional alternative post cannot be found, be offered to both by way of a job share.
- 76.5 Where an employee under notice of redundancy is to be redeployed, the council will undertake to provide relevant retraining as far as is reasonably practicable. In doing this consideration will be given to both the cost of retraining and the requirement for the employee to carry out the duties of the redundant post during the notice period.

77. General recruitment

- 77.1 Where a vacancy is not similar enough to justify assimilation or redeployment the council may, at their discretion, invite employees to apply for other suitable alternative posts. In such cases the employee will be shortlisted and interviewed before any other applicants for the post.

- 77.2 If, through any of the processes highlighted above, an employee finds alternative employment within the council a written offer should be made. Offers of a new contract will result in an employee's redundancy notice and the council's liability for redundancy payments being removed, providing that the new offer:
- Is made before the redundancy takes effect
 - Starts within four weeks of the date of redundancy
 - Gives a trial period, under the terms outlined below
 - States that if the employee accepts the job they will not be dismissed under redundancy

77.3 If the employee unreasonably refuses a new job offer, dismissal will take effect. In such cases, dismissal will still be for redundancy, but the council can refuse to pay any redundancy payment.

78. Trial periods

78.1 Alternative employment is subject to a statutory four-week trial period from the date at which the new job is taken up. If, after this period, the employee or the council decide that the new role or employee's performance in the post is not suitable, then either party may give notice.

78.2 In such cases redundancy rights are not lost. Where a trial period is unsuccessful both parties return to the "pre-trial period" situation i.e., as if the trial had not taken place and a redundancy payment will be made. Any such payment will be calculated based on the day that the old job ended.

78.3 For the purpose of retraining, trial periods may be extended for up to 3 months, providing that written confirmation of the following is made prior to the start of the new position:

- The retraining agreement
- The date on which the period of retraining ends
- The terms and conditions of appointment applying after retraining

79. Appeals

79.1 Employees who are to be made redundant are entitled to appeal against the decision if they feel that the selection criteria have been unfairly applied to their case.

79.2 Employees may also appeal if they are not offered suitable alternative employment following the assimilation, redeployment or general recruitment interview processes outlined in this policy.

79.3 Appeals must be submitted to the Human Resources Committee, in writing, within ten working days of the employee being advised of the decision.

79.4 Employees wishing to appeal are entitled to be accompanied at an appeal hearing by a trade union representative or a work colleague of their choice.

79.5 In the event of appeals being made, the Human Resources Committee will set up an appeals panel consisting of members of the council who have not been previously involved with the specific case to be heard.

79.6 The panel will meet within ten working days of an appeal being submitted and their decision, based either on unanimous agreement or majority vote, will be final.

79.7 The employee will be advised of the panel's decision, in writing within five working days of the appeal hearing.

80. Voluntary redundancy

- 80.1 The council is not obliged to offer voluntary redundancy but may consider it an option in certain circumstances.
- 80.2 Employees may opt for redundancy if they are in a post whose termination would enable the council to avoid a compulsory redundancy and if their voluntary redundancy is accepted by the council.
- 80.3 Volunteers for redundancy will be entitled to a statutory payment.

81. Notice period

- 81.1 During their notice period employees are entitled to a maximum of 5 working days without loss of pay to attend interviews/training.
- 81.2 Employees under notice of redundancy may ask to leave the council early i.e. before the end of their notice period. Consideration to such requests will be considered on individual basis and the council's agreement will be dependent on whether the request is made on reasonable grounds.
- 81.3 Requests to leave the council early do not invalidate an employee's right to a redundancy payment unless the council refuses the request. The employee is still considered dismissed through redundancy but on the date of expiry of the employee's notice rather than the original notice from the council.

82. Redundancy during maternity/paternity leave

- 82.1 In cases of an employee being absent from work due to maternity/paternity leave the council will ensure that, if affected by redundancy, they are always consulted.
- 82.2 Redundancy during maternity/paternity leave ends any contractual obligations to both maternity/paternity pay and the right to return.
- 82.3 An employee on maternity/paternity leave and under notice of redundancy will be offered any suitable alternative vacancy in preference to other employees.
- 82.4 The council will, as detailed by current legislation, automatically send a written statement of the reason for redundancy to an employee who is pregnant or on maternity/paternity leave.

83. Continuous service

- 83.1 To qualify for a redundancy payment an employee must have two years continuous service.
- 83.2 In cases where an employee has taken strike action the period of action will not count towards continuous service, although continuity of service will not be broken.
- 83.3 Under the terms of "The Redundancy Payments (Continuity of Employment in Local Government) (Modification) Order 1999 (as amended)" the council will include continuous service in local government (and other specified bodies) when calculating entitlement to, and the amount, of redundancy payments.

84. Redundancy payments

- 84.1 The calculation date for determining a week's pay for redundancy is the date on which statutory notice starts or, in instances where no notice or less than the statutory notice is given, the date employment ends.

- 84.2 Without prejudice, an employee who meets the continuous service criteria set out above will receive, at the very least, statutory redundancy payments, calculated as follows:
- (i) 0.5 week's pay for each full year of service, where age during the year is less than 22
 - (ii) 1.0 week's pay for each full year of service, where age during the year is 22 or above but less than 41
 - (iii) 1.5 week's pay for each full year of service, where age during the year is 41 or above

84.3 The council may, at its discretion, make enhanced redundancy payments; these will be dependent on circumstances at the time.

84.4 In calculating statutory redundancy payments, a week's pay is based on the maximum statutory weekly rate of pay in force at the time or the employee's normal rate of pay (whichever is lower). Overtime is not included.

84.5 If an employee works variable hours from week to week, a week's pay is the average remuneration for the 12 weeks prior to the calculation date.

85. Holiday

85.1 Payments in respect of outstanding accrued holiday entitlement will be made if it is not reasonably practicable for the entitlement to be taken during the notice period.

86. Pay in lieu of notice (PILON)

86.1 Employees will, wherever possible, be expected to work out their notice. PILON will only be paid where there is good reason for an employee not working the full notice period.

EMPLOYEE EXPENSES POLICY

87. Introduction

87.1 This policy applies to all employees of the council and provides a framework to show how an employee can claim and be reimbursed for reasonable and authorised expenses that are incurred during their normal course of work.

88. Expectations

88.1 Employees are expected to:

- Behave honestly, responsibly and within the guidelines of this policy
- Submit expenses claims within reasonable timescales, on approved forms and provide enough information to explain the need for the expense
- Keep all receipts and provide VAT receipts (where appropriate) to allow the council to reclaim the VAT

88.2 The council will:

- Check claimed expenses are authorised in line with this policy
- Approve and pay legitimate claims promptly

88.3 If an employee fails to comply with this policy, this may delay reimbursement or cause claims to be rejected. Persistent or deliberate non-compliance may result in disciplinary action.

89. Travel related claims

89.1 The council has followed the guidance of HM Revenue and Customs in setting the following travel related expense rates:

- Private car mileage – 45p per mile (up to a maximum of 10,000 miles per annum, thereafter 25p per mile)
- Additional passenger mileage in a private car – 5p per mile per passenger
- Motorcycle mileage – 24p per mile
- Bicycle mileage – 20p per mile
- Rail or bus fare – reimbursement of cost (standard class) as shown on ticket
- Parking – reimbursement of cost as shown on ticket (only where no free parking is available within reasonable walking distance)

89.2 The council may amend these rates if guidance from HM Revenue and Customs changes, or alternate legislation recommends changes.

89.3 Mileage should only be claimed for distances in excess of normal travel to work. You cannot claim mileage for normal travel between home and work.

89.4 The council will not, under any circumstances, reimburse employees for penalty fines incurred due to speeding, unsafe driving or any other motoring offence, parking fines or fines for failing to purchase the correct ticket on public transport.

90. Other expenses claims

- 90.1 The following expenses are acceptable, and employees will be reimbursed for:
- Overnight accommodation and sustenance where required for attendance at a work-related event (where agreed in advance with the line manager)
 - Professional membership fees (where relevant and agreed in advance with the line manager)
 - Annual eye-testing (for employees who regularly use Visual Display Units (VDU's))

91. Claims process

- 91.1 Employees must complete an approved expenses claim form (appendix B) promptly after incurring expenses (and no later than three months after the claim date) and submit to their line manager for approval.
- 91.2 The line manager is responsible for checking the claim complies with this policy and includes receipts (where applicable). Once satisfied, the line manager will sign the form, thereby authorising the payment to be made.
- 91.3 Payment will be made direct to the employee (not through the payroll) either by cheque or direct credit to their nominated bank account.
- 91.4 Any employee unsure whether a claim is likely to be accepted is advised to speak to their line manager prior to incurring the expense.

STATEMENT ON EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT

92. Introduction

- 92.1 Normandy Parish Council is committed to supporting its employees in order for the council to deliver its services as efficiently and effectively as possible.
- 92.2 To achieve this, it is important that clear lines of management are established and understood by employees and councillors. This statement sets out the guiding principles of the council in respect of the management of its employees.

93. Management of the Parish Clerk

- 93.1 It is essential that there is a formal and regular link between the Parish Clerk as the council's senior employee and representative(s) of the council as employer so that the needs and aspirations of both groups can be understood and discussed, and objectives set and progress monitored.
- 93.2 The responsibility for line management of the Parish Clerk on behalf of the council will be shared by the Chairman of the Council and the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee. They will undertake the Parish Clerk's annual appraisal and will also arrange to meet with the Parish Clerk on at least a quarterly basis to review progress against agreed objectives.

94. Management of other employees

- 94.1 Overall responsibility for the general management of all other employees will rest with the Parish Clerk, although this may be delegated to other nominated officers as appropriate.
- 94.2 From time to time, it may be necessary to seek external professional advice on employment matters. If the Parish Clerk feels this additional support is necessary, he/she will seek approval from the Human Resources Committee.
- 94.3 Individual councillors shall not seek to interfere in day-to-day employee management. If this does occur, the Parish Clerk shall report the interference to the Chairman of the Council and the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SCHEME

95. Purpose of the scheme

- 95.1 Normandy Parish Council recognises the benefits of regular and constructive performance review and is committed to ensuring that employees are provided with support to enable them to work as effectively as possible.
- 95.2 One of the ways in which such support can be provided is through the performance management scheme, which provides a systematic opportunity to:
- Recognise the achievements of employees over the previous year
 - Identify ways in which performance can be improved to the benefit of both the individual and the organisation
 - Agree performance objectives and targets for the coming year
 - Identify development/training needs and prepare a personal development plan
 - Review job descriptions and salary scales
- 95.3 Individual performance will be reviewed on at least an annual basis, plus an interim review carried out six months after the main review.

96. The performance review year

- 96.1 Performance will be reviewed at the end of the municipal year, with the follow up review taking place six months later. Any salary increases agreed during the annual review will take effect from 1 April annually (backdated where appropriate).
- 96.2 The Parish Clerk will report to the Human Resources Committee annually that all employees have received their appraisal and provide a summary of recommended changes to job descriptions and salaries for approval following the annual appraisals.
- 96.3 All appraisal documents should be signed, and it is the signed copy only that is accepted. The Parish Clerk objectives only will be reported to council and not the whole appraisal document.

97. Who reviews

- 97.1 The review will normally be carried out by the immediate line manager. The Parish Clerk will be reviewed by the Chairman of the Council and the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.
- 97.2 If either the Chairman of the Council or Chairman of the Human Resources Committee is unavailable, then the Parish Clerk will be reviewed by two other members of the Human Resources Committee who are qualified and experienced in conducting appraisals.
- 97.3 The Parish Clerk will monitor all appraisals for completion and consistency and will report the outcome of this monitoring to the Human Resources Committee.

98. Preparation for the review

- 98.1 For performance review to be successful and effective it is essential that both the reviewer and the employee prepare. A date should be set for the review meeting at least 2 weeks prior to the discussion taking place. The supporting paperwork including the record from the previous year's review, the part year review and the objectives must be provided to the employee when setting the date.

99. The job description

- 99.1 The job description will be reviewed as part of this process, in order to ensure it is a clear reflection of the role and may be changed by mutual agreement if there are substantial, material and permanent changes to the role.

100. General job performance

- 100.1 It is recognised that all jobs are formed of both several specific objectives and general job performance such as planning and prioritising the workload, communicating appropriately, working collaboratively with others and being flexible and adaptable. All aspects of the job will be reviewed.

101. Personal development

- 101.1 In order to carry out their role and to meet new objectives it is recognised that from time-to-time employees will need further personal development. Personal development is not simply about attending training courses. Development and training opportunities can be provided by a variety of means, but they should be realistic for both the individual and the council, whilst considering operational requirements.

Opportunities may include:

- On or off job coaching
- Mentoring
- Shadowing other employees
- Taking on new responsibilities
- Undertaking project work or contributing to working parties
- Attending training courses, workshops, conferences, seminars and symposia
- Guided reading
- Networking
- E-learning

102. Confidentiality

- 102.1 The agreed objectives and comments of the reviewer and employee will be recorded on the Employee Appraisal and Development Form (appendix C).
- 102.2 The content of the review will normally be confidential between the reviewer and employee, although the main record of discussion will be reviewed by the Parish Clerk who will retain the forms for Human Resources files and use the information to prepare the training plan.

TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

103. Introduction

- 103.1 Normandy Parish Council recognises that training and development for employees and councillors is a major investment in its ability to deliver effective services and will seek to create a culture of continuing development.
- 103.2 The council will comply with the principles of the National Training Strategy for Parish and Parish Councils and may subscribe to the Surrey Association of Local Councils and Society of Local Council Clerks to ensure employees and councillors can attend their training at preferential rates.

104. Policy commitments

- 104.1 The Human Resources Committee will be responsible for determining, meeting and monitoring the training needs of employees and councillors, and managing the allocated budget.
- 104.2 Records of all training of employees will be noted on the Employee Training Record (appendix D). A copy of these records along with details of councillors' training and development will be kept by the Parish Clerk.
- 104.3 A training schedule will be drawn up by the Parish Clerk for approval by the Human Resources Committee to ensure all training is relevant, fit for purpose and is carried out in a cost-effective manner. This schedule will be informed by training needs of employees identified through the appraisal system. Consideration will be given to carrying out training locally possibly in liaison with other local councils.

105. Professional qualifications

- 105.1 All employees will be encouraged to pursue professional qualifications, such as the Certificate in Local Council Administration (CiLCA) or equivalent. It will be a requirement of the Parish Clerk role for the job holder to hold the qualification or commit to achieving it within 18 months of appointment.
- 105.2 The council will meet the financial cost of registering for and submitting the CiLCA portfolio. If a candidate is unsuccessful, the candidate will be responsible for the cost of any re-submission.
- 105.3 Additional higher-level qualifications or specific qualifications relevant to the role will be discussed as part of the annual appraisal. The council may agree to meet the cost, or part thereof, of a qualification which will be of mutual benefit to both the council and employee.

106. Employee personal development

- 106.1 The council recognises that training and development for employees often provides continuous professional development for the employee, while enhancing specific skills. Training courses for personal development are motivational for employees and consistently leads to improved performance in their current role. Equally, the council acknowledges that such personal development will occasionally lead employees to seek alternate employment to maximise their new or improved skills.
- 106.2 Where there is a clear benefit to the council, payment for any personal development training will be made by the council, and the employee will be expected to use their new or improved skills in their existing role within the council.
- 106.3 Where the cost of the personal development training course exceeds £250, the employee will repay to the council the full cost of the training if they leave the employment of the council within 12 months of completion of the training. Agreement to this condition will be recorded in the employee's file.

- 106.4 Where the cost of the personal development training course exceeds £500, the employee will repay to the council the full cost of the training if they leave the employment of the council within 12 months of completion of the training, and 50% of the cost of the training if they leave the employment of the council after 12 months, but within 24 months of the completion of the training. Agreement to this condition will be recorded in the employee's file.
- 106.5 The provisions within this part of this policy do not apply to any training course deemed compulsory for the employee to carry out their existing role, for example due to a change of regulations or insistence on qualifications.

SICKNESS AND ABSENCE POLICY

107. Introduction

- 107.1 Normandy Parish Council is committed to the care and well-being of its employees. The purpose of this policy is to ensure all employees have access to information relating to sickness and absence and are aware of the steps they must follow when absent from work.
- 107.2 By managing sickness and absence, the council will continue to provide a high-quality service to members of the public.
- 107.3 This policy covers:
- sickness leave
 - unauthorised absence and lateness
 - annual leave
 - compassionate and/or emergency leave
 - time off in lieu
 - medical appointments
 - maternity/paternity/adoption/parental leave
 - other reasons for leave

108. Sickness leave

- 108.1 The council recognises that there will be occasions when employees are unable to work due to sickness. The council provides a sick pay scheme for its employees in line with the National Joint Council (NJC) terms and conditions. Details of sick pay are included in the employee's contract.
- 108.2 If an employee is unable to attend work due to sickness, they must inform their line manager, giving the reason for sickness, the likely duration and the expected date of return. This must be done as soon as practical on the first day of absence, or within 1 hour of starting their shift work pattern, so that service levels can be maintained. Only in exceptional circumstances will the council accept notification of absence from a third party. Regular contact must be maintained with the line manager during a period of absence.
- 108.3 For absences of seven days or less, employees are required to complete the Employee Sickness Self-Certification form (appendix E) as outlined in the Employment Rights Act 1996. For all absences which exceed a seven-day period, a medical certificate is required.
- 108.4 Employees who are frequently absent could be suffering from poor health which may require medical investigation. The council will offer support and guidance in consultation with the employee and will consider referral to occupational health specialist services if deemed appropriate.
- 108.5 All sickness absence will be recorded. The council will investigate and assess whether further action is necessary if periods of absence due to short-term self-certification sickness reach unacceptable levels, or if patterns emerge.
- 108.6 The council takes a sympathetic view towards genuine ill health problems and will provide a supportive approach to employees who have been subject to long-term sickness. An employee returning to work following a period of long-term sickness will be supported on their return to work, and the following options may be considered:
- Phased return to work
 - Change of role or working pattern
 - Provision of specialist equipment

- 108.7 Where an employee has returned from any period of sickness, a return-to-work interview will be conducted by their line manager.
- 108.8 In cases where an employee's absence reaches excessive levels or there is a lack of information about the circumstances of the sickness absence, the council may request medical information about their condition from their GP.
- 108.9 Any medical information received by the council will be treated as strictly confidential. Any expense in obtaining medical information from the GP will be met by the council.

109. Unauthorised absence and lateness

- 109.1 Unauthorised absence occurs when an employee fails to attend work and has not made arrangements with their line manager.
- 109.2 Where an employee returns to work following an unauthorised absence, they will be required to attend a meeting with their line manager to explain their absence. The employee will be expected to take any unauthorised absence from their annual leave entitlement, or if no entitlement remains, pay will be deducted for the period of unauthorised absence. Unauthorised absence may result in disciplinary action being taken.
- 109.3 There may be occasions when it is unavoidable to be late for work. The employee should contact their line manager to explain the reasons for any delay. The employee will be expected to make up any time lost at work due to lateness. Persistent lateness may result in disciplinary action being taken.

110. Annual leave

- 110.1 Details of annual leave entitlements are included in an employee's contract, in line with NJC terms and conditions.
- 110.2 The annual leave period runs from 1 April to 31 March the following year. A maximum of 5 day's annual leave may be carried over from one year's entitlement to the next.
- 110.3 All requests for annual leave must be made using the Employee Holiday Request Form (appendix F).
- 110.4 Requests for annual leave are at the discretion of an employee's line manager, with consideration of the operational requirements of the council being considered before a decision is made. Annual leave requests will not be unreasonably refused.
- 110.5 Where two or more employees request annual leave on the same dates, and it is not operationally possible to grant all the requests, preference will be given based on the following:
- Seniority of role/grade
 - Length of service
 - Parental/carer commitments

111. Compassionate and/or emergency leave

- 111.1 Compassionate leave is at the overall discretion of the Parish Clerk. The council recognises that each individual's respective relationships are different, however in order to achieve consistency, in general paid compassionate leave will be granted in the following circumstances:
- The death of a close family member i.e., spouse, civil partner, child, sibling, parent (or equivalent in-laws) or grand-parent
 - The diagnosis of, or the final stages of care for, a serious (life threatening) illness affecting a close family relative (as defined above)
 - The employee falling victim to a serious crime
 - Fire/flood/burglary at the employee's home
 - Road traffic collisions or other distressing accidents/incidents involving the employee or a close family member
- 111.2 The length of paid compassionate leave granted is at the discretion of the Parish Clerk but is limited to a maximum of 5 working days. Where a situation requires an extended period of leave beyond 5 working days, other options should be discussed including use of TOIL, annual leave and/or a period of unpaid leave.
- 111.3 Requests for compassionate leave for situations not included above will be considered on an individual basis.
- 111.4 Requests for emergency leave are at the discretion of the Parish Clerk. The council recognises that each individual's personal circumstances will dictate what may be deemed as an emergency. However, to achieve consistency, in general paid emergency leave of one day will be granted in the following circumstances:
- To provide assistance or make arrangements for the provision of care for a dependant who is ill or injured
 - When an unexpected disruption or termination of arrangements for the care of a dependant occurs
- 111.5 Employees are expected to use the day's paid emergency leave to make any ongoing care arrangements for dependents. Any additional requests for leave should be considered as requests for annual leave and assessed using the council's annual leave guidelines.

112. Time off in lieu (TOIL)

- 112.1 The standard council working week is 37 hours. Employee's individual weekly hours are detailed in their employment contracts.
- 112.2 The council recognises an employee's right to receive recompense for working beyond their contracted hours. Employees have a right to be paid at agreed NJC overtime rates. Any paid overtime must be agreed in advance with the line manager.
- 112.3 The council encourages the use of TOIL and welcomes employee's consideration of management of the council salary budget. Any TOIL accrued must be agreed in advance with the line manager using the TOIL Agreement Form (appendix G).
- 112.4 Requests to use accrued TOIL time must be made using the TOIL Request Form (appendix H) and will be considered in the same way as annual leave requests, with the need to maintain operational effectiveness.

113. Medical appointments

- 113.1 Employees are expected to arrange medical appointments out of normal working hours wherever possible.

113.2 The council recognises this is not always possible. Where it is necessary to make an appointment during normal working hours, employees are encouraged to make the appointments at either the start or end of the day where possible to minimise disruption to the work of the council.

113.3 In-patient appointments or procedures taking the whole day will be treated as sick leave in accordance with the procedures outlined in this policy.

114. Maternity/paternity/adoption/parental leave

114.1 The council recognises an employee's right to maternity/paternity/adoption/parental leave as set out in the relevant legislation.

115. Other leave

115.1 Paid leave of absence will be granted for employees undertaking jury service, serving on public bodies or undertaking public duties.

115.2 Where an allowance is claimable for loss of earnings, the employee should claim and pay the allowance to the council.

ADVERSE WEATHER POLICY

116.Introduction

- 116.1 Normandy Parish Council recognises that adverse weather conditions can sometimes make travel to and from work difficult. Employees are encouraged to make every effort to attend work, whilst considering their personal safety in hazardous conditions.
- 116.2 This policy applies to all employees and outlines procedures which should be followed in the event of adverse weather conditions.

117.Weather deterioration during the day

- 117.1 Employees should monitor adverse weather conditions and (where applicable) availability of public transport during the day, particularly where conditions appear to be deteriorating. Council computer systems may be used to monitor the situation, along with listening to local radio news and weather bulletins.
- 117.2 Employees who are likely to face a particularly difficult journey home should be allowed to leave early wherever possible. Decisions regarding employees leaving early are at the discretion of the line manager.
- 117.3 Consideration should be given to employees with children who may need to leave early due to the unexpected closure of the child's school or nursery.
- 117.4 Contingency plans should be in place to maintain levels of service wherever possible, including:
- Cover arrangements provided by employees who do not have particularly long or difficult journeys home to ensure continuity of service
 - Provision to divert services elsewhere as necessary
 - Arrangements for employees to take work home with them, taking into account issues relating to access, security and confidentiality of data
 - Providing members of the public with essential contact and emergency numbers in the event of complete closure of the premises
- 117.5 Where employees remain at work, health and safety requirements must continue to be met, including rules regarding working in extreme conditions in the event of the failure of heating systems.

118.Unable to attend work due to adverse weather

- 118.1 Where adverse weather occurs overnight, employees should take all reasonable steps to attend their normal place of work as soon as practical, considering their personal safety.
- 118.2 If an employee expects to be delayed due to adverse weather or is unable to travel safely to work at all, he/she must advise their line manager as soon as practical.
- 118.3 Where adverse weather is predicted in advance, contingency plans should be in place to maintain levels of service wherever possible, including:
- Cover arrangements provided by employees who do not have particularly long or difficult journeys home to ensure continuity of service
 - Provision to divert services elsewhere as necessary
 - Arrangements for employees to take work home with them, taking into account issues relating to access, security and confidentiality of data

- Providing members of the public with essential contact and emergency numbers in the event of complete closure of the premises
- 118.4 If an employee is unable to attend their normal place of work, they should continue to monitor weather conditions during the day. If conditions improve, the employee should take all reasonable steps to attend, considering their personal safety.
- 118.5 Employees are expected to make up time missed due to adverse weather (except where emergency leave is taken) by use of TOIL and/or annual leave. Line managers are encouraged to use their discretion where employees are slightly delayed arriving at work due to adverse weather.

BULLYING AND HARASSMENT (DIGNITY AT WORK) POLICY

119.Introduction

- 119.1 Normandy Parish Council considers bullying and harassment unacceptable and will take all necessary steps to eliminate such behaviour. The council has a legal duty to ensure that employees are not exposed to any unnecessary risks associated with this behaviour.
- 119.2 Following changes to the Sex Discrimination Act in April 2008, the council is duty bound to protect its employees from sexual harassment from customers and members of the public. Employees will be entitled to claim damages if the council fails to take reasonable steps to protect them after being made aware of any incidents.
- 119.3 The council has a duty of care towards all employees, and liability under common law arising out of the Employment Rights Act 1996 and the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

120.Procedures

- 120.1 Employees may experience bullying and harassment by members of the public. This behaviour can be either:
- Verbal
- Via the telephone
 - Face to face with the member(s) of the public
 - Written correspondence
 - Via email or social media
- Or physical
- Assaults or violence, or the threat of assault or violence towards the employee
 - Damage to the employee's property
 - Inappropriate sexual behaviour
- 120.2 In the first instance, all incidents must be reported to the employee's line manager. In the case of the most senior employee, all incidents must be reported to the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee. A comprehensive note of the incident must be made. Details should include:
- Date and time
 - Type of incident
 - Details of incident
 - If known, the name and address of the member of the public involved, and the names and addresses of any witnesses to the incident
- 120.3 If the incident relates to correspondence received, either written or electronic, the correspondence should be retained as evidence and no response should be made.
- 120.4 If the incident relates to a telephone call which is recorded, or where a message has been left on an answering service, the message should be retained as evidence and no response should be made.
- 120.5 Upon receipt of the reported incident, the line manager or Human Resources Committee must determine if the incident is severe enough to report to the police. In the case of physical assaults or violence, all incidents will be reported to the police.

121. Sanctions

- 121.1 If the line manager or Human Resources Committee considers an incident serious enough to report to the police, the council will take advice from the police regarding any appropriate sanction.
- 121.2 If the line manager or Human Resources Committee does not consider an incident serious enough to report to the police, they may decide to attempt to resolve the problem directly with the member of the public, with the aim to receive an apology and guarantee of no future repeat of the behaviour which gave rise to the incident.
- 121.3 If it is proposed that a member of the public has bullied an employee, the council reserves the right to impose sanctions against that member of the public, including:
- Blocking the member of public's email address and accepting no further emails
 - Reporting emails to the member of public's Internet Service Provider (ISP)
 - Banning the member of the public from the council offices or other council owned buildings

122. Incidents involving councillors

- 122.1 Normandy Parish Council considers bullying and harassment of employees by councillors equally unacceptable. Procedures for dealing with incidents of this nature are set out under the Members' Code of Conduct adopted by the council.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING (WHISTLEBLOWING) POLICY

123. Introduction

- 123.1 Normandy Parish Council is committed to the highest standards of openness and expects employees to come forward and voice concerns where applicable.
- 123.2 This policy covers major concerns that fall outside the scope of other policies and procedures. It applies to concerns relating to other employees and/or councillors.
- 123.3 Concerns relating to councillors may be better dealt with under the provisions of the Members' Code of Conduct.
- 123.4 All concerns raised will be treated in the strictest confidence and the identity of the employee will not be revealed without prior agreement. Employees will not be penalised, disciplined or shown other unfavourable treatment for raising a legitimate non-malicious concern under this policy.
- 123.5 This policy is informed by the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 and the Employment Rights Act 1996 which provide specific rights for employees who disclose information about alleged wrongdoings in certain specific circumstances.

124. Purpose of policy

- 124.1 This policy aims to:
- Encourage employees to feel confident to make a disclosure of concerns
 - Provide appropriate avenues for these concerns to be raised by employees
 - Reassure employees that they will be protected from being penalised or suffering detriment for making a disclosure

125. Concerns covered by this policy

- 125.1 This policy covers any serious concerns about any aspect of service provision or the conduct of employees or members of the council or others acting on behalf of the council.
- 125.2 Concerns that fall within this policy include, but are not limited to:
- Where a criminal offence has been committed, is being committed or is likely to be committed
 - Where a person has failed, is failing or is likely to fail to comply with any legal obligations
 - Health and safety risks, including risks to the public
 - Where misleading or incorrect information is knowingly provided to the council as part of its decision making process

126. How to raise a concern

- 126.1 The council has several policies which may be a better mechanism for raising concerns, dependant on the nature of the concern. Before raising a concern under this policy, employees should refer to:
- Grievance Policy
 - Members' Code of Conduct
 - Complaints Procedure
- 126.2 If this is the most suitable mechanism for reporting, concerns should be raised, either orally or in writing, to the line manager. The most senior employee should raise any concern with the Chairman of the Council, or Vice-Chairman of the Council if the concern relates to the Chairman of the Council.

- 126.3 The concern should detail as much background information and history as possible, including dates, times and the nature of the concern. While the employee is not expected to prove beyond doubt the allegation, they are expected to be able to demonstrate that the disclosure is being made in good faith and with no malicious intent.

127. How the council will respond

- 127.1 The council will investigate any concern raised under this policy. The nature of any investigation will be determined at the discretion of the individual to whom the concern was reported and may include referral to an alternate source such as an auditor. A decision may be made to use one of the alternate council policies to follow through the investigation.
- 127.2 The identity of the employee raising the concern will be kept confidential throughout, unless agreed by the employee.
- 127.3 The individual will be informed of how the council intends to pursue the concern, or if the council has decided the concern is unfounded.
- 127.4 Should it become necessary during any investigation to meet with the employee raising the concern, every effort will be made to arrange this at a time and location to protect the identity of the employee.
- 127.5 The council will take steps to minimise any difficulties which an employee may experience as a result of raising, or being suspected of raising a concern, and if an employee is required to give evidence at any criminal or disciplinary hearing the council will offer support.

128. Malicious allegations

- 128.1 The council is committed to the highest standards of openness and expects employees to come forward and voice concerns where applicable.
- 128.2 However, the council will not tolerate deliberately misleading, malicious or substantially untrue allegations made by any employee under the guidance of this policy.
- 128.3 Any employee found to have made a deliberately misleading, malicious or substantially untrue allegation will be subject to the council's Disciplinary Policy.

GRIEVANCE POLICY

129.Introduction

- 129.1 This policy is based on and complies with the 2015 ACAS Code of Practice. It also takes account of the ACAS guide on discipline and grievances at work. It aims to encourage and maintain good relationships between the council and its employees by treating grievances seriously and resolving them as quickly as possible. It sets out the arrangements for employees to raise their concerns, problems or complaints about their employment with the council. The policy will be applied fairly, consistently and in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.
- 129.2 Many problems can be raised and settled during everyday working relationships. Employees should aim to settle most grievances informally with their line manager.
- 129.3 This policy confirms:
- Employees have the right to be accompanied or represented at a grievance meeting or appeal by a workplace colleague, a trade union representative or a trade union official. The companion will be permitted to address the grievance/appeal meetings, to present the employees' case for his/her grievance/appeal and to confer with the employee. The companion cannot answer questions put to the employee, address the meeting against the employee's wishes or prevent the employee from explaining his/her case
 - The council will give employees reasonable notice of the date of the grievance/appeal meetings. Employees and their companions must make all reasonable efforts to attend. If the employee's companion is not available for the proposed date of the meeting, the employee can request a postponement and can propose an alternative date that is within five working days of the original meeting date
 - Any changes to specified time limits must be agreed by the employee and the council
 - An employee has the right to appeal against the decision about his/her grievance. The appeal decision is final
 - Information about an employee's grievance will be restricted to those involved in the grievance process. A record of the reason for the grievance, its outcome and action taken is confidential to the employee. The employee's grievance records will be held by the council in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998
 - Recordings of the proceedings at any stage of the grievance procedure are prohibited, unless agreed as a reasonable adjustment that takes account of an employee's medical condition
 - If an employee who is already subject to a disciplinary process raises a grievance, the grievance will normally be heard after completion of the disciplinary procedure
 - If a grievance is not upheld, no disciplinary action will be taken against an employee if he/she raised the grievance in good faith
 - The council may consider mediation at any stage of the grievance procedure where appropriate (for example where there have been communication breakdowns or allegations of bullying or harassment). Mediation is a dispute resolution process which requires the council and the employee's consent.

130.Informal grievance procedure

- 130.1 The council and its employees benefit if grievances are resolved informally and as quickly as possible. As soon as a problem arises, the employee should raise it with his/her line manager to see if an informal solution is possible. Both should try to resolve the matter at this stage. If the employee does not want to discuss the grievance with his/her line manager (for example, because it concerns the line manager), the employee should contact the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee or, if appropriate, another member of the Human Resources committee.

131. Formal grievance procedure

- 131.1 If it is not possible to resolve the grievance informally, the employee may submit a formal grievance. It should be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Human Resources Committee.
- 131.2 The Human Resources Committee will appoint a sub-committee of three members to investigate the grievance. The sub-committee will appoint a chairman from one of its members. No councillor with direct involvement in the matter shall be appointed to the sub-committee.

132. Investigation

- 132.1 Within 10 working days of the council receiving the employee's grievance, the employee will be asked, in writing, to attend a grievance meeting. The sub-committee's letter will include the following:
- The names of its chairman and other members
 - A summary of the employee's grievance based on his/her written submission
 - The date, time and place for the meeting. The employee will be given reasonable notice of the meeting which will be within 25 working days of when the council received the grievance
 - The employee's right to be accompanied by a workplace colleague, a trade union representative or a trade union official
 - A copy of the council's grievance policy
 - Confirmation that, if necessary, witnesses may attend on the employee's behalf and that the employee should provide the names of his/her witnesses at least five working days before the meeting
 - Confirmation that the employee will provide the council with any supporting evidence at least five working days before the meeting

133. The grievance meeting

- 133.1 At the grievance meeting:
- The chairman will introduce the members of the sub-committee to the employee
 - The employee (or companion) will set out the grievance and present the evidence
 - The chairman will ask the employee what action he/she wants the council to take
 - Any member of the sub-committee and the employee (or the companion) may question any witness
 - The employee (or companion) will have the opportunity to sum up the case
 - The chairman will provide the employee with the sub-committee's decision, in writing, within five working days of the meeting. The letter will notify the employee of the action, if any, that the council will take and of the employee's right to appeal
 - A grievance meeting may be adjourned to allow matters that were raised during the meeting to be investigated by the sub-committee

134. The appeal

- 134.1 If an employee decides that his/her grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved by the sub-committee, he/she may submit a written appeal to the Human Resources Committee. An appeal must be received within five working days of the employee receiving the sub-committee's decision and must specify the grounds of the appeal.
- 134.2 Appeals may be raised on a number of grounds, e.g.:
- A failure by the council to follow its grievance policy
 - The decision was not supported by the evidence
 - The action proposed by the sub-committee was inadequate/inappropriate
 - New evidence has come to light since the grievance meeting

- 134.3 The appeal will be heard by a panel of three members of the Human Resources Committee who have not been involved in the case. The appeal panel will appoint a chairman from one of its members.
- 134.4 If, because of involvement in the original hearing, there are an insufficient number of members of the Human Resources Committee available to form the appeal panel, other councillors may be added to the appeal panel, providing they have not been involved in the case previously.
- 134.5 The employee will be notified, in writing, within 10 working days of receipt of the appeal of the time, date and place of the appeal meeting. The meeting will take place within 25 working days of the council's receipt of the appeal. The employee will be advised that he/she may be accompanied by a workplace colleague, a trade union representative, or a trade union official.
- 134.6 At the appeal meeting, the chairman will:
- Introduce the panel members to the employee
 - Explain the purpose of the meeting, which is to hear the employee's reasons for appealing against the decision of the Grievance Sub-Committee
 - Explain the action that the appeal panel may take
- 134.7 The employee (or his/her companion) will be asked to explain the grounds of his/her appeal.
- 134.8 The chairman will inform the employee that he/she will receive the decision and the panel's reasons, in writing, within five working days of the appeal meeting. The appeal panel may decide to uphold the decision of the Grievance Sub-Committee or substitute its own decision.
- 134.9 The decision of the appeal panel is final.

DISCIPLINARY POLICY

135. Introduction

- 135.1 This policy is based on and complies with the 2015 ACAS Code of Practice. It also takes account of the ACAS guide on discipline and grievances at work. The policy is designed to help council employees improve unsatisfactory conduct and performance in their job. Wherever possible, the council will try to resolve its concerns about employees' behaviour informally, without starting the formal procedure set out below.
- 135.2 The policy will be applied fairly, consistently and in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.
- 135.3 This policy confirms:
- The council will fully investigate the facts of each case
 - The council recognises that misconduct and unsatisfactory work performance are different issues. The disciplinary policy will also apply to work performance issues to ensure that all alleged instances of employees' underperformance are dealt with fairly and in a way that is consistent with required standards. However, the disciplinary policy will only be used when performance management proves ineffective.
 - Employees will be informed in writing about the nature of the complaint against them and given the opportunity to state their case
 - Employees may be accompanied or represented by a workplace colleague, a trade union representative or a trade union official at any disciplinary, investigatory or appeal meeting. The companion is permitted to address such meetings, to put the employee's case and confer with the employee. The companion cannot answer questions put to the employee, address the meeting against the employee's wishes or prevent the employee from explaining his/her case
 - The council will give employees reasonable notice of any meetings in this procedure. The employee must make all reasonable efforts to attend any meeting. Failure to attend any meeting may result in it going ahead in the employee's absence and a decision being taken. An employee who does not attend a meeting will be given the opportunity to be represented and to make a written submission.
 - If the employee's companion is not available for the proposed date of the meeting, the employee can request a postponement and can propose an alternative date that is within five working days of the original meeting date
 - Any changes to specified time limits in the council's procedure must be agreed by the employee and the council
 - Information about an employee's disciplinary matter will be restricted to those involved in the disciplinary process. A record of the reason for disciplinary action and the action taken by the council is confidential to the employee. The employee's disciplinary records will be held by the council in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998
 - Recordings of the proceedings at any stage of the disciplinary procedure are prohibited, unless agreed as a reasonable adjustment that takes account of an employee's medical condition
 - Employees have the right to appeal against any disciplinary action. The appeal decision is final
 - If an employee who is already subject to the council's disciplinary procedure, raises a grievance, the grievance will normally be heard after the completion of the disciplinary procedure
 - Disciplinary action taken by the council can include an oral warning, written warning, final written warning or dismissal
 - Except for gross misconduct when an employee may be dismissed without notice, the council will not dismiss an employee on the first occasion that it decides there has been misconduct
 - If an employee is suspended following allegations of misconduct, it will be on full pay and only for such time as is necessary. Suspension is not a disciplinary sanction. The council will write to the employee to confirm any period of suspension and the reasons for it

- The council may consider mediation at any stage of the disciplinary procedure where appropriate (for example where there have been communication breakdowns or allegations of bullying or harassment). Mediation is a dispute resolution process that requires the council's and the employee's consent

136. Examples of misconduct

136.1 Misconduct is employee behaviour that can lead to the employer taking disciplinary action. The following list contains some examples of misconduct:

- Unauthorised absence
- Poor timekeeping
- Misuse of the council's resources and facilities including telephone, email and internet
- Inappropriate behaviour
- Refusal to follow reasonable instructions
- Breach of health and safety rules

137. Examples of gross misconduct

137.1 Gross misconduct is misconduct that is so serious that it is likely to lead to dismissal without notice. The following list contains some examples of gross misconduct:

- Bullying, discrimination and harassment
- Incapacity at work because of drugs or alcohol
- Violent behaviour
- Fraud or theft
- Gross negligence
- Gross insubordination
- Serious breaches of health and safety rules
- Serious and deliberate damage to property

138. Examples of unsatisfactory work performance

138.1 The following list contains some examples of unsatisfactory work performance:

- Inadequate application of office procedures
- Inadequate IT skills
- Unsatisfactory management of employees
- Unsatisfactory communication skills

139. Disciplinary investigation

139.1 The council's Human Resources Committee will appoint a minimum of two investigators who will be responsible for undertaking the investigation – a fact-finding exercise to collect all relevant information. The investigators will be independent and will normally be councillors.

139.2 If the Human Resources Committee considers that there are no councillors who are independent (for example, because they all have direct involvement in the allegations about the employee), it will appoint someone from outside the council.

139.3 The investigators will be appointed as soon as possible after the allegations have been made. The Human Resources Committee will inform the investigators of the terms of reference of the investigation. The terms of reference should deal with the following:

- What the investigation is required to examine
- Whether a recommendation is required

- How the findings should be presented. For example, an investigator will often be required to present the findings in the form of a report
 - Who the findings should be reported to and who to contact for further direction if unexpected issues arise or advice is needed
- 139.4 The investigators will be asked to submit a report within 20 working days of appointment. In cases of alleged unsatisfactory performance or allegations of minor misconduct, the appointment of an investigator may not be necessary, and the council may decide to commence disciplinary proceedings at the next stage.
- 139.5 The Human Resources Committee will first notify the employee in writing of the alleged misconduct and ask him/her to attend a meeting with the investigators. The employee will be given at least five working days' notice of the meeting with the investigators so that he/she has reasonable time to prepare for it. The letter will explain the investigatory process and that the meeting is part of the process. The employee should be provided with a copy of the council's disciplinary procedure. The council will also inform the employee that when he/she meets with the investigators, he/she will have the opportunity to comment on the allegations of misconduct.
- 139.6 Employees may be accompanied or represented by a workplace colleague, a trade union representative, or a trade union official at any investigatory meeting.
- 139.7 If there are other persons (e.g., employees, councillors, members of the public or the council's contractors) who can provide relevant information, the investigators should try to obtain it from them in advance of the meeting with the employee.
- 139.8 The investigators have no authority to take disciplinary action. Their role is to establish the facts of the case as quickly as possible and prepare a report that recommends to the Human Resources Committee whether disciplinary action should be taken.
- 139.9 The investigators report will contain their recommendations and the findings on which they were based. They will recommend either:
- The employee has no case to answer and there should be no further action under the council's disciplinary procedure
 - The matter is not serious enough to justify further use of the disciplinary procedure and can be dealt with informally
 - The employee has a case to answer and there should be action under the councils' disciplinary procedure
- 139.10 The investigators will submit the report to the Human Resources Committee which will decide whether further action will be taken.
- 139.11 If the council decides that it will not take disciplinary action, it may consider whether mediation would be appropriate in the circumstances.

140. The disciplinary meeting

- 140.1 If the Human Resources Committee decides that there is a case to answer, it will appoint a sub-committee of three councillors. The sub-committee will appoint a chairman from one of its members. The investigators shall not sit on the sub-committee. No councillor with direct involvement in the matter shall be appointed to the sub-committee. The employee will be invited, in writing, to attend a disciplinary meeting. The sub-committee's letter will confirm the following:
- The names of its chairman and other two members
 - Details of the alleged misconduct, its possible consequences and the employee's statutory right to be accompanied at the meeting

- A copy of the investigation report, all the supporting evidence and a copy of the council's disciplinary procedure
- The time, date and place for the meeting. The employee will be given reasonable notice of the hearing (at least 15 working days) so that he/she has sufficient time to prepare for it
- That witnesses may attend on the employee's and the council's behalf and that both parties should inform each other of their witnesses' names at least five working days before the meeting
- That the employee and the council will provide each other with all the supporting evidence at least five working days before the meeting. If witnesses are not attending the meeting, witness statements will be submitted to the other side at least five working days before the meeting
- That the employee may be accompanied by a companion – a workplace colleague, a trade union representative, or a trade union official

140.2 The disciplinary meeting will be conducted as follows:

- The chairman will introduce the members of the sub-committee to the employee
- The investigators will present the findings of the investigation report
- The chairman will set out the council's case and present supporting evidence (including any witnesses)
- The employee (or the companion) will set out his/her case and present evidence (including any witnesses)
- Any member of the sub-committee and the employee (or the companion) may question the investigators and any witness
- The employee (or the companion) will have the opportunity to sum up his/her case
- The chairman will provide the employee with the sub-committee's decision with reasons, in writing, within five working days of the meeting. The chairman will also notify the employee of the right to appeal the decision
- The disciplinary meeting may be adjourned to allow matters that were raised during the meeting to be investigated by the sub-committee

141. Disciplinary action

141.1 If the sub-committee decides that there should be disciplinary action, it may be any of the following:

Oral warning

An oral warning is issued for most first instances of minor misconduct. The council will notify the employee:

- The reason for the warning, the improvement required (if appropriate) and the time period for improvement
- That further misconduct/failure to improve will result in more serious disciplinary action
- The employee's right of appeal
- That a note confirming the oral warning will be placed on the employee's Human Resources file, that a copy will be provided to the employee and that the warning will remain in force for six months

Written warning

If there is a repetition of earlier misconduct which resulted in an oral warning, or for different and more serious misconduct, the employee will normally be given a written warning. A written warning will set out:

- The reason for the written warning, the improvement required (if appropriate) and the time period for improvement
- That further misconduct/failure to improve will result in more serious disciplinary action
- The employee's right of appeal
- That a note confirming the written warning will be placed on the employee's Human Resources file, that a copy will be provided to the employee and that the warning will remain in force for 12 months

Final written warning

If there is further misconduct during the period of a written warning or if the misconduct is sufficiently serious, the employee will be given a final written warning. A final written warning will set out:

- The reason for the final written warning, the improvement required (if appropriate) and the time period for improvement
- That further misconduct/failure to improve will result in more serious disciplinary action up to and including dismissal
- The employee's right of appeal
- That a note confirming the final written warning will be placed on the employee's Human Resources file, that a copy will be provided to the employee and that the warning will remain in force for 18 months

Dismissal

The council may dismiss:

- For gross misconduct
- If there is no improvement within the specified time period in the conduct which has been the subject of a final written warning
- If another instance of misconduct has occurred and a final written warning has already been issued and remains in force

141.2 The council will consider very carefully a decision to dismiss. If an employee is dismissed, he/she will receive a written statement of the reasons for his/her dismissal, the date on which the employment will end and details of his/her right to appeal.

141.3 If the sub-committee decides to take no disciplinary action, no record of the matter will be retained on the employee's Human Resources file. Action imposed as a result of the disciplinary meeting will remain in force unless and until it is modified as a result of an appeal.

142. The appeal

142.1 An employee who is the subject of disciplinary action will be notified of the right of appeal. His/her written notice of appeal must be received by the council within five working days of the employee receiving written notice of the disciplinary action and must specify the grounds for appeal.

142.2 The grounds for appeal include:

- A failure by the council to follow its disciplinary procedure
- The sub-committee's decision was not supported by the evidence
- The disciplinary action was too severe in the circumstances of the case
- New evidence has come to light since the disciplinary meeting

142.3 The appeal will be heard by a panel of three members who have not previously been involved in the case. This includes the investigators. The appeal panel will appoint a chairman from one of its members.

142.4 The employee will be notified, in writing, within 10 working days of receipt of the notice of the appeal of the time, date and place of the appeal meeting. The employee will be advised that he/she may be accompanied by a companion – a workplace colleague, a trade union representative or a trade union official.

- 142.5 At the appeal meeting, the chairman will:
- Introduce the panel members to the employee
 - Explain the purpose of the meeting, which is to hear the employee's reasons for appealing against the decision of the Disciplinary Sub-Committee
 - Explain the action that the appeal panel may take
- 142.6 The employee (or the companion) will be asked to explain their grounds for appeal.
- 142.7 The chairman will inform the employee that he/she will receive the decision and the panel's reasons, in writing within five working days of the appeal hearing.
- 142.8 The appeal panel may decide to uphold the decision of the Disciplinary Sub-Committee, substitute a less serious sanction or decide that no disciplinary action is necessary. If it decides to take no disciplinary action, no record of the matter will be retained on the employee's Human Resources file.
- 142.9 If an appeal against dismissal is upheld, the employee will be paid in full for the period from the date of dismissal and continuity of service will be preserved. The appeal panel's decision is final.

Line Manager Signature: _____ Date: _____

Under the Data Protection Act 2018, 'sensitive data' such as details of sickness absence will be held about you. The above data will be used to calculate and pay benefits, meet health and safety requirements and to meet the council's duty of care to all employees. In signing this form, you consent to processing of personal data within the terms of the council's data protection policies.

Guidance notes for self-certification

- The 'Employee Self-Certification' form must be completed by all employees for each period of absence, including single day absences which are not covered by a doctor's certificate.
- The term 'work-related' means that the injury/condition occurred whilst on council premises/business.
- When completing the 'reason for absence', the attached list should be used. Please state, as a minimum, a sickness category. It is the employee's choice if they wish to disclose specific reasons.
- All employees should have a return-to-work interview with their line manager on the day of return from absence.
